Take the Log Home
Tour!

Ever wonder what log home living is really like? During Log Cabin Days you will have the rare opportunity to view the inside of up to 6 Beautiful Log Homes on the self guided auto tour. The $20 per person will benefit the American Cancer Society.

- Educational workshops from the Log Home Academy experts on planning, designing, financing and more on building your Log Home
- Vendors displaying rustic furniture, crafts, home decor and building components
- Small cabins and pavilions will be auctioned off on Saturday
- Lumberjack's demonstrating two-man crosscut sawing and axe throwing
- Watch the mill and the dry kilns in operation
- Bid on rustic furniture, log home decor, log cabin quilt and other handmade crafts in our live auction on Saturday afternoon. To consign, call 419-368-0005
- Antique marketplace. Purchase antiques for your home decor or your special collection
- Delicious Amish cooked barbecued chicken, burgers, soft pretzels, open kettle baked beans, apple butter, potato chips & popcorn. Mouth watering fry-pies, cakes and assorted pastries. Fresh-pressed apple cider. Plus homemade Ice-Cream. You won't go home hungry!
- Don't miss the early bird breakfast serving pancakes, scrambled eggs, and sausages on Saturday 7-10 a.m.
- The kids will love the petting zoo, pony and covered wagon rides and gold digging in the shavings
- Join the forestry group for a nature walk and learn how to plant trees and manage your woodland for the enjoyment of the next generation
- Steam engine sawmill, hand-peeling, hand-hewing, broom-making, wool-spinning and pottery
