The Ashland County Coroner's Office is issuing a press release in the cause of death of Breann McKean. The preliminary report is pending and we are waiting for the completion of the toxicology results. Please note that toxicology is ran for many different reasons other than drug testing. These results will take approximately 12 weeks till they are complete. Cause of death will be determined at that time. For any questions, please contact our office in writing at coroner@ashlandcounty.org. Thank you.
