Patrol Investigates Fatal Crash Involving Commercial Vehicle and Pick-Up Truck

Sugar Creek Township - On Tuesday November 12, 2024 at approximately 2:38 PM the Wooster Dispatch Center for the Ohio State Highway Patrol was advised of a two-vehicle injury crash involving a pick-up truck and a commercial semi-truck on US-30 at the intersection with Kohler Road (TR-129).

A 2024 International semi-truck, operated by 34-year-old Issai Capetillo of Pleasantville, New Jersey was pulling a 2022 Hyundai van-trailer while traveling east on US-30. Mr. Capetillo had stopped to make a left turn onto Kohler Road when he was struck in the rear by a Toyota pickup. A 1999 Toyota Tacoma pickup, operated by 45-year-old Robert Burr of Massillon, Ohio was traveling eastbound on US-30 and struck the rear of the commercial semi and trailer. Mr. Burr was extricated by mechanical means and taken by Life-Flight to Akron General Hospital with incapacitating injuries. Adam Sartin, age 41 of Orrville, Ohio was the right front passenger in the Toyota pickup truck and sustained fatal injuries as a result of the crash. The driver of the commercial semi did not sustain any injuries as a result of this crash.

US-30 was closed for approximately 2 hours while the crash scene was being investigated. Safety belts were not worn by the passenger or driver of the Toyota Tacoma pick-up truck.

The Ohio State Patrol was assisted on-scene by Dalton Police Department, Kidron Fire Department, Wayne County Coroner's Office, the Ohio Department of Transportation, and Rigz Towing.

The crash remains under investigation at this time.
