Re: Grand Jury Indictment of Joshua Boucher

February 15, 2025

Morrow County Prosecuting Attorney Andrew Wick announced that on February 13, 2025, the Morrow County Grand Jury returned an indictment against Joshua Boucher on a seventeen (17) count indictment for:

Attempted Aggravated Murder;
Attempted Murder;
Aggravated Burglary;
Aggravated Robbery (3 counts);
Felonious Assault (3 counts);
Domestic Violence;
Kidnapping;
Disrupting Public Services;
Tampering with Evidence (4 counts);
and Breaking and Entering.

Multiple counts of the indictment carry firearm specifications that allege that the Defendant brandished or used a firearm in the commission of the offense.

This indictment originates from events that occurred on April 1, 2024 in Chesterville that resulted in the shooting of D.B., the wife of Mr. Boucher and a multi-county pursuit of Mr. Boucher. The case has been investigated by Morrow County Sheriff's Office Detective Bureau.

Mr. Boucher is currently being held in the Ashland County Jail on separate charges related to the April 1st events and will be arraigned by the Morrow County Common Pleas Court at a later date.

As with all persons indicted by the Morrow County Grand Jury, Mr. Boucher is to be considered innocent until proof of guilt is found in the Common Pleas Court.
